

Uniform Licensing Law (ULL) Rewrite September, 2006

The Draft ULL Rewrite is now called the Uniform Credentialing Act, or UCA. A 973 page document has been drafted in legislative format.

Basic provisions - Sections 1 through 142 on pages 1 to156. These would apply to all health professions and health-related occupations covered by the UCA;

Individual Practice Acts and Harmonizing Language. Practice acts are statutes for the individual profession or occupation. Changes have been made that coincide with the basic provisions of the UCA. Harmonizing language is necessary in other statutes to correctly reference the UCA.
